New Laboratory Mixer Purchase Programs

Delp & Associates announces no cost/no obligation product evaluation.

Columbus, Ohio - Delp & Associates, LLC the Columbus-based manufacturer of the revolutionary Delp Mixer equipment for begins 2005 with an extraordinary offer. Scientists and researchers are invited to experience the simplicity, versatility and user benefits of the Delp Mixer. So, we've come up with two plans to make it easy for you to try a mixer for 30 days.

- First, companies in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia can participate in our 30-Day Mixer Evaluation program. We'll deliver your mixer, provide technical support during the course of the evaluation period, and pick up the equipment when you're finished. You get the chance to test-drive the Delp Mixer in your lab and compare it to existing equipment at no cost or obligation.
- Second, we're changing the terms for our first time buyers. Place an order for a Delp Mixer and provide either a Purchase Order or Credit Card number, and we'll delay billing for 30 days. If at the end of the 30 days you find that the mixer doesn't perform as expected, send it back. No restocking fee, no shipping and handling, its all on us.

Based in Columbus, Ohio, Delp & Associates, LLC produces its signature line of laboratory mixer/stirrers, the Delp Mixer, and is a leading designer and manufacturer of unique products for the polymer, pharmaceutical and life science industries.
